PUBLIC RECORDS LAW

Is it a public record?

- “Public records” means all documents . . . regardless of the physical form-

Section 119.011 (12), Fla. Stat. Definitions

- As each agency increases its use of and dependence on electronic recordkeeping, each agency must provide reasonable public access to records electronically maintained and must ensure that exempt or confidential records are not disclosed except as otherwise permitted by law.

- Section 119.01 (2) (a), Fla. Stat., General State Policy on Public Records

“[A]ny material prepared in connection with official agency business which is intended to perpetuate, communicate, or formalize knowledge of some type.”

Shevin v. Byron, Harless, Schaffer, Reid & Assoc., Inc., 379 So.2d 633 (Fla. 1980)

STANDARD CUSTODIAL INQUIRY

- Do you have custody?
- Are you able to transfer the records to the clerk, or designated custodian?

CUSTODIAL INQUIRY COMPLICATED BY TEXTS, SOCIAL MEDIA, ETC.

- Are you using government-issued devices?
- If not, the data exists outside of the government's IT network?
- Does the government have access to log-in credentials?
- Who is ensuring necessary preservation?
- How do you handle a dynamic record (e.g. comment thread on a post)
- Are you able to transfer the records to the clerk, or designated custodian?

ISSUES CREATED BY SOCIAL MEDIA

PUBLIC RECORDS LAW

A public record is not required to be eternally preserved

“There is no single retention period that applies to all electronic messages or communications

Retention periods are determined by the content, nature, and purpose of records, and are set based on their legal, fiscal, administrative, and historical values, regardless of the format in which they reside or the method by which they are transmitted.”

SUNSHINE LAW

Public meetings and records; public inspection; criminal and civil penalties All meetings of any board or commission of any . . . municipal corporation . . . at which official acts are to be taken are declared to be public meetings open to the public at all times. . . .

286.011, Fla. Stat.

“The Sunshine Law is to be construed “so as to frustrate all evasive devices”

Town of Palm Beach v. Gradison, 296 So. 2d 473, 477 (Fla. 1974)

IT ALL COUNTS – IT DOES NOT MATTER HOW YOU MEET

MISCELLANEOUS LEGAL ISSUES

DO NOT BLOCK MEMBERS OF THE PUBLIC FROM PUBLIC ACCOUNTS

“[i]f the ‘tweets’ the public official is sending are public records, then a list of blocked accounts, prepared in connection with those public records ‘tweets,’ could well be determined by a court to be a public record.”

Inf. Op. to Nicole Shalley, Gainesville City Attorney, June 1, 2016.

The irony in all of this is that we write at a time in the history of this nation when the conduct of our government and its officials is subject to wide-open, robust debate. . . .if the First Amendment means anything, it means that the best response to disfavored speech on matters of public concern is more speech, not less

Knight First Amendment Institute at Columbia University v. Trump, (2d Cir. July 9, 2019), rehearing denied, 963 F.3d, 216 (Mar. 23, 2020); on appeal to Supreme Court of the United States Docket No. 20-197
