HOME-BASED BUSINESSES (OPPOSED) – PASSED

CS/HB 403 creates a sweeping preemption on the local regulation of home-based businesses. The bill allows a commercial business to open in a residential home and preempts commonsense local limitations such as hours of operation.

REAL PROPERTY RIGHTS/BERT HARRIS ACT (OPPOSED) – PASSED

CS/CS/HB 421 amends the Bert J. Harris Act to provide procedures and remedies to landowners whose property is inordinately burdened by a local government regulation. Of concern to cities, the bill makes several changes favorable to property owners that are bringing claims to the detriment of government entities that are defending such claims. The changes include revisions to how soon a claim can be brought, how attorney fees are calculated, shorter time frames for governments to respond to claims and allowing owners who sell a property to still bring forward claims.
